Music recording not only provides a creative outlet for self-expression, it offers a motivating way to learn more about computer technology and explore a wide range of musical styles and genres. Our staff of board certified music therapists specialize in meeting the needs of youth and adults with mental health needs, learning differences, and cognitive challenges. No experience required!

Contact Talia Morales, MT-BC, clinic supervisor to learn more about how our programs can benefit your child. Music recording sessions for siblings are also available.
